MISSOURI STATE NEWS.

One Hundred Years Old.

John Berry, 10 miles southwest of Salem, Dent county, is 100 years old. Being the only person who ever attained that age in the county, a picnic and reunion was held near his residence.

Nearly 1,500 people were present. He came to Missouri in 1830. While residing in Shelby county, Ill., he was taken to Missouri, he hauled freight from St. Louis when it was a French village, there being but one American citizen doing business there. He has resided upon the present home place sixty-five years, and without changing his domicile has resided in Shannon, Texas and Dent counties. By his first wife he had thirteen children, eleven of whom are yet living. Of his second marriage were born seven, of whom six survive. He suffers a great deal from rheumatism, and has to use crutches. He began smoking when 70 years of age.

During the present year the following, who were nearing the century mark, have died in Dent county: William Crider, aged 98, Timothy Kinney, aged 97, and James Organ, aged 98. But Mrs. Rachel Skyles, who was born in 1798, still lives. She owns a farm of 400 acres, is a member of the Methodist church, and is not remarkably vigorous and healthy for one of her age.

Colored Masons.

The twenty-ninth annual communication of the Masonic grand lodge of Missouri (colored) was held at Lexington.

Over 125 lodges were represented. Rev. J. C. Madison, of Lexington, delivered the address of welcome, and Inman Page, president of Lincoln lodge, responded. Grand Master J. H. Pelham, who has filled the position for twelve years, read a highly interesting annual address, showing a remarkable growth of the organization during the past Masonic year.
